

A TRIBUTE IN MEMORY
OF
DON O. CHRISTIE

WHEREAS: Don O. Christie was a longtime Redford resident who served our community in a number of responsible endeavors. Don began his career in Redford as a part-time Constable in 1954 through 1968, and served as a trustee on the Redford Township Board for 23 years; and

WHEREAS: Don is survived by three sons, Garth, Don, and Keith, his daughter Donna, seven grandchildren, Don Jr., David, Renee, Jason, Steven, Jeff and Jake, and one great grandson, Louis. He was preceded in death by his wife Louise, and his daughter, Wendy; and

WHEREAS: Don was a lifelong Democrat. He was particularly devoted to seniors and their activities in Redford Township; giving freely of his time and talents to his friends and peers; and

WHEREAS: To name just a few of his contributions, he was an integral part of establishing the Township Beautification Commission, Sister City Commission, and the honor roll for local military veterans located at Townhall; and

WHEREAS: Don has served this community in an official capacity and as a humanitarian with absolute integrity and dedication; and

WHEREAS: His death leaves our community with a deep feeling of sorrow for the loss of such an honored and respected citizen.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that we, the members of the Charter Township of Redford Board of Trustees, on behalf of all our citizens, hereby extend to the members of the Christie Family, this tribute to Don O. Christie, expressing our sincere regret for their loss, and hope that they will be comforted by the memories of his fine life and numerous achievements.
